

University of Zurich <sup>UZH</sup>

Universitat Pompeu Fabra Barcelona

HANS JOACHIM VOTH

Chair of Development and Emerging Markets at the Economics Department, Zurich University and CEPR Research Fellow

CONFERENCIANTES BCC
INTERNATIONAL SPEAKERS

Hans-Joachim Voth (D.Phil, Oxford, 1996), holds the Chair of Development and Emerging Markets at the Economics Department, Zurich University. He is an economic historian with interests in financial history, long-term persistence and growth, as well as political risk and macroeconomic instability.

Hans-Joachim Voth is a Research Fellow in the International Macroeconomics Program at CEPR (London), a member of the Royal Historical Society, a joint managing editor of the Economic Journal, an editor of Explorations in Economic History, and an associate editor at the Quarterly Journal of Economics.

His principal areas of research include long-run economic growth, the history of sovereign debt, causes and consequences of the Nazi Party's rise to power, and the economic history of the Industrial Revolution.

He has published three academic books with OUP and Princeton UP, five popular books, and over 50 articles. These have appeared (inter alia) in the AER, the OJE, RESTUD, RESTAT, the EJ, the Journal of Economic History, the Journal of Economic Growth, the European Economic Review, and Explorations in Economic History. My research has been profiled inter alia in The Economist, the FT, the New York Times, Financial Times Deutschland, Wall Street Journal, NZZ, Handelsblatt, FAZ, Le Monde, Vanguardia and De Volkskrant.

Hans Joachim Voth was educated in Bonn, Freiburg, St. Antony's College, Oxford, the European University Institute (EUI), and Nuffield College, Oxford. From 1998 to 2013, he was a professor at UPF, Barcelona. Also he is a Research Fellow in the International Macro Program at the CEPR (London), has held visiting appointments at the MIT Economics Department, Princeton, at NYU-Stern and at the Stanford Economics Department, and he has been a visiting fellow at the Institute for Advanced Studies, ANU, Canberra, Australia and at Nuffield College, Oxford, as well a research fellow at Clare College, Cambridge.

In 2008, Hans Joachim Voth was awarded an Advanced Investigator Grant by the European Research Council (ERC). He has received a Leverhulme Prize Fellowship, the EHA's Alexander Gerschenkron Prize, the Gino Luzzatto Prize from the European Historical Economics Society, and a Ramon y Cajal research distinction from the Spanish Ministry of Education. In 2014, Princeton University Press published "Lending to the Borrower from Hell" (with Mauricio Drelichman).

Topics

- ❖ Crisis Impact on Society
- ❖ Financial Markets
- ❖ Social Reforms
- ❖ Macroeconomic instability
- ❖ Economic Policies
- ❖ Asset price volatility

PLAY
VIDEO